“ It was an honor to discuss Mr Smiths service to our country with him. Being a WW I I buff I was fascinated to listen as he reluctantly descibed his missions as a tail gunner on a B 17. He down played his service but you knew listening that it must have been a very tense experience .

“ I met Vernon years ago from his friend Gus Andifandakis, friends , comrades, I found them to be my true hero's of the greatest generation of Americans., Vernon's love of family, country was inspiring. We had long conversations about their war years and being in the battle of the bulge.
Several years ago I was in Bastogne Belgium and went to the memorial and museum there. I signed the Guest register as representing Gus and Vernon and added their names, their unit numbers.
