

Albertina Oppedisano

November 6, 2022

Albertina, or Tina, as she was called by her family and friends, was a devoted wife to her beloved husband of 57 years, Salvatore, and a loving mother to her daughters Marie and Carlyn. She was a doting grandmother to her 5 grandchildren Paul, Marissa, David, Stephen and Thomas and her great grandchildren Dylan, Madison, Ruby Rose and Elijah. Tina was born in the Catskills and moved to Corona with her parents Raffaele, Quirina and siblings Anna and Tony where she spent her childhood and young adulthood. She worked at a Bulova wartime production plant prior to her marriage during World War II making the hair springs used in the watches worn by American soldiers. Tina has lived in Roslyn Heights for more than 70 years raising her family, working with her husband, managing their business properties and enriching all of our lives with her many talents. She was a gifted seamstress and loved creating art through needlework and painting. She was a member of the Cooperative Extension of Nassau County where she served as president. Tina is survived by her daughters Marie (Richard) Lieberman, Carlyn (Peter) Oppedisano Dominguez, grandchildren Paul, Marissa, David, Stephen, Thomas and great grandchildren Dylan, Madison, Ruby Rose and Elijah.

Funeral mass will be held at St. Mary, Roslyn Harbor on Wednesday at 10AM.
