AD

“ My dad, Alberto, was the hardest working and most generous person I have ever known in my life. Whether you realized it or not, he was always thinking about others and how he could help them. He worked 6 to 7 days a week for about 55 years to support his family and help his friends as well. He was always the first to give business to his friends, so that they could build up their own businesses and be successful. His sudden and unexpected passing was the worst thing that I have ever experienced in my lifetime.

I miss you tremendously Dad, and I hope you know how much your whole family loves you. You were truly the best father.

Love you forever,

Adriana
