

Amy Shaffer Crawley

November 5, 2024

On Tuesday morning, November 5, 2024, Amy Shaffer Crawley, loving wife, caring daughter, sister, aunt and friend passed away at age 64, in Rockville Centre, New York.

Amy was born on September 27, 1960, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree from The Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1982. After working at various firms, she began in 1995 working as a coordinator at The American Management Association, where she stayed for twenty years. That same year, she met the love of her life and best friend Jim Crawley whom she married in December of 1996. In 2021, she retired and began to follow her passion for spiritual readings, where she connected with many people not to predict their futures, but to provide them with hope and a pathway to happiness.

Amy was exceptionally talented and creative. She had a gift for painting with watercolors, counted cross stitch needlework, and sewing, and was so proud of the special cape she made for Jim.

Those who knew her described Amy as exuberant, full of life and very funny. She was said to have brought the light to all who were lucky enough to meet her.

She is survived by her husband James Crawley of 27 years, her mom Joan, brother Matt, and nieces and nephew, Gray, Kate and Kevin as well as countless friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, December 14th from 11-1PM at Roslyn Heights Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers Amy asked that donations be made to The Well Spouse Association and Tri State Basset Hound Rescue.

“ A message to Jim...Jim, we never met, but I have just learned of Amy's passing. She was the most thoughtful, kind, empathetic and caring staff member at American Management. While they were filled with many egotistic and arrogant managers, Amy always was fair and objective, a great listener, an excellent manager, who fought hard to keep AMA's speakers from being abused. She lost battles, but she never stopped trying to make her boss(es) listen to reality. Luckily, some of those people are gone now, but I so regret that Amy has had so few years in retirement after working so hard all her life. I loved Amy, and she will be missed, but never will leave my memory. My condolences to you and family. T J Griffith
