“ I am so fortunate that I got to know and be friends with Ann-Chi. (aka Jeannie's Mom.) What a lovely, kind person. She was so proud of her son and daughter (as well she should be.) Then when she was blessed with four grandchildren she absolutely glowed whenever she spoke about them. She truly considered both her daughter-in-law and son-in-law her children as well and loved them as her own. We came from very different backgrounds and it was enlightening to have her share her history, culture and amazing journey from her homeland to wind up (almost a century later) in Jericho, NY. Ann-Chi will be missed but always loved greatly by her family. Condolences and love to all of you, Linda and Richard
