“ Please accept our sincere condolences. My husband and I just learned of Aunt Lorraine's passing and are deeply saddened. Aunt Lorraine was married to my Uncle Dominic Condello, and they lived for years on 82nd street above 6th Avenue in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn. Uncle Dom was my mother's brother. Aunt Lorraine and Uncle Dom used to socialize with my parents, Lucy and Michael Rella, and my aunt and uncle, Tessie and Joe Condello. They also went away to a resort together, the name of which eludes me at this time. They enjoyed many happy hours together in each other's company. Uncle Dom had two sons, Vincent, a successful businessman, who now lives in England, and Michael, a wonderful man, who passed on about seven years ago. Uncle Dom predeceased Michael. Aunt Lorraine and Uncle Dom spent many happy times with Michael's large family in Nyack, New York, and with Vincent and his wife, and daughter.

My husband happily recalls often meeting Aunt Lorraine in Bay Ridge (when we used to live there) when he was shopping on a Saturday morn, and likewise, Aunt Lorraine was also doing her weekly shopping. They used to have a good, long chat, and many laughs on the streets of Bay Ridge.

Aunt Lorraine was always a friendly, cheerful, positive woman, quick to laugh, with a wonderful smile, who was welcomed into the Condello and Rella families with great love.

My grown sons were also saddened to hear this sad news. Everyone loved Aunt Lorraine.

MR

There are many fond memories that were spent with Aunt Lorraine and Uncle Don. My memories are from their apartment in Brooklyn NY. There were so many dinners we ate there. Many fun times I will keep in my memory.

I spoke with Aunt Lorraine on the phone not to long ago. We spoke for hours and hours. Jenifer must have been getting worried when she was unable to get thought to Aunt Lorraine. I'm sorry Jenifer. I hadn't talked with Aunt Lorraine in many years. We did some catching up. I'm sorry I hadn't called more.

Lucille mentioned a Resort. I think I can help with its name. "Cedar Terrace in Cairo NY" I remember it well. I was with them when they went on vacation. In fact the full name back then was Arontaees Cedar Terrace. I believe it was spelled Arontaees. If I look I'll probably find pictures of the place. It was in the Catskills NY. Memories!
