In Loving Memory of Audrey Wenner

Audrey Wenner, age 94, passed away, leaving behind a legacy of love, warmth, and unwavering devotion to her family and community. She was predeceased by her beloved husband of 50 years, Arnold, and her daughter, Cherry.

Audrey is survived by her daughter, Donna; and her cherished grandchildren, Jessica, Thomas, Michelle, and Alysse, all of whom were a constant source of pride and joy in her life.

Audrey lived a full and vibrant life. She and Arnold shared a deep love of travel, exploring the world together with unforgettable trips to places such as Africa and India. At home, Audrey's backyard garden was a source of beauty and pride, and she generously shared her passion by volunteering her time at Planting Fields, where she became especially fond of tending to the cactus collection.

In her younger years and well into her 50s, Audrey was an enthusiastic square dancer, forming lasting friendships and embracing the joy of movement and music. Her faith was a cornerstone of her life—she was a devoted member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Hicksville, where she regularly attended services and Bible study, often followed by cherished lunches with her close-knit group of friends.

Audrey and Arnold also found joy in the simple pleasures, including birdwatching in their backyard, where their garden attracted a wide variety of beautiful birds. She was a wonderful cook and a gracious host, known especially for her festive, themed Christmas parties and family gatherings that brought everyone together.

Above all, Audrey and Arnold were deeply devoted grandparents. They rarely missed a moment in their grandchildren's lives—attending concerts, award ceremonies, dance recitals, graduations, marching band competitions, and more. Their presence was a steady and loving support that will never be forgotten.

Audrey will be remembered for her kindness, generosity, and the care she showed not only to her family, but to neighbors and friends as well. She lived her life with strength, joy, and a deep sense of community.
