“ Aunt Blanche was a magical glue for the Gocayne family. One of my favorite aunts, always in the mood to learn and absorb, like the culture of the Shinnecock Indians, taking us strawberry picking and then to the Shinnecock Pow Wow. I too, like Marcy have fond memories of the Fireworks on 4th of July at Morgan beach, Dad's ham sandwiches and Wise potato chips. Aunt B's coleslaw with pineapple chunks was an expected delicacy for every BBQ, oh and that BBQ sauce that Mom and Aunt Blanche got from the BBQ place on the way to Islip is still the one I use today. Who can forget the pool parties, not me. Aunt Blanche always spoke her peace and her thoughts, such as telling me in 1970 that "you should wear a bra so your bossoms will point straight out (like Madonna's?) and not fall down like Bobchi's". Remembering that conversation always brings a smile and a chuckle to me.

I love you and hope you are all having a helluva BBQ and pool party!

“ Blanche (and Jack) were my favorite neighbors. From allowing us 3 DeCillis kids run around in and out of their yard and playing downstairs in their basement to helping my grandparents whenever they needed it, they were truly kind and generous people. Blanche you will be missed on Cedar Street. Rest In Peace.

“ *So many great childhood memories of Aunt Blanche! Loved going strawberry picking, to Morgens Beach for Memorial Day fireworks, school field trips, train rides to Shea Stadium Mets baseball games. Living right next door to her was such a treat! She was generous with the best homemade ice tea and I got to sample all her fabulous baked goods every weekend! She even sent me a Munich bunt cake to my college dorm!
Later in life Aunt B and my Mom would talk long distance for hours reminiscing and laughing, hope they meet up again for more good times! Thanks for the memories Aunt Blanche! Rest In Peace!*
