

Catherine Marie Pickering

October 20, 2023

Catherine Marie Pickering, 87 longtime resident of Sea Cliff, NY passed away October 20, 2023.

Before her retirement in 1991 Catherine was a teacher and later a librarian in the Herricks School District. During retirement, she enjoyed traveling as well as tending to her spectacular garden.

Catherine also had a passion for being behind the camera, whether taking photos of family, to nature all around, photography was a creative outlet which she enjoyed greatly. Catherine was an active member at the Sea Cliff Library and was a docent at the Sea Cliff Museum teaching all who had interest in the broad, vast history of the Village of Sea Cliff. She also did extensive genealogy research on the Pickering family and was an active member of the Herricks School retiree group.

She was predeceased by her parents, John H. Pickering and Helen (Nalevaiko), her brothers, John H. Pickering Jr., (Susan)George E. Pickering, (Florence), and her niece, Sandra Pickering-Hoffman, (Wayne). She is survived by nieces and nephews: John H. Pickering, (Helen), Wendy Pickering-Martin, (John, deceased) George Pickering, (Maureen), Regina Spillane, (Michael), eleven great nieces and nephews, and nine great great nieces and nephews.

Aunt Catherine will be missed by all of us.

“ A few years ago, I spent some time helping Cathy weed her beautiful garden. She sent me home with a bucket full of Black-eyed Susans, but I have a brown thumb for flowers and didn't expect much to happen. To my surprise, they survived that first winter. They now surround my kitchen and are a year- round remembrance of Cathy's generosity and spirit.- Nancy Oley
