

Charles Eddie Edwards

October 15, 2025

Charles Edwards, father, grandfather, and friend, passed away this Wednesday, October 15th after a battle with cancer. Born in Huanaco, Peru, Charlie's life took him all over the world, with stints living in London, Amsterdam, New York, Miami, California, Washington D.C. and Panama. He was a consummate salesman and a successful entrepreneur, known for his contagious laughter and joyous smile. Always an adventurous and endearing spirit, he made friends wherever he went. He will be remembered for his positivity, fortitude, and perseverance.

He is survived by his 4 children, 7 grandchildren, and the many friends he left all over the world.

A funeral mass will be held Saturday, November 8th at 11:30 a.m. at St. Peter of Alcantara Roman Catholic Church in Port Washington, NY. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the American Liver Foundation or Weill Cornell Medical Center.
