“ Jerry and I remember him fondly when we lived in new York and you would visit us.He was very nice and I always thought he was a very smart man. He was very playful with our 2yr old little girl Lauren . I remember him driving her around the block with Rosita pretending they were going to take her home with them . it was sweet and my little girl didnt seem to want to leave the car where she happily sat next to him and Rosita.We are glad we had the opportunity to meet him and see him 2 years ago while in NY. That was a lovely day when we all had lunch together and Charles was there looking so distinguished as always. He was a good man .May he rest in peace.
