“ Charlie was always there for anybody who needed him. His joy in life was to help others. I've never met someone who was such a hard worker. Even when he wasn't working, he would just start clearing tables. I never knew how he had the energy to do it all. Charlie was not only my Barback, but a very good friend. We had a lot of ups and downs together. I will miss ordering dominos with him! He even let me put pineapple on our pizza. Charlie I wish we had more time together. You will be missed. RIP my friend.
