“ *No words can describe the pain of losing my dad, and not enough tears can wash away my sorrow.
I wished I had told him how much I love him when I had the chance. My dad was such a gentle soul, full of sunshine, kindness, tolerance, and wisdom. He always carried a smile on his face, and would tell us, and anyone who asked, that he smiled constantly because he had three beautiful women (mom, sister and I) he loved in his life.*

When I think of my dad, I see his smiling face, and I see him in my sister, my son and myself.

Dad, we love you and we miss you.
