“ *Deb,
sorry to hear you were in pain for so long.
I met all of you in the early 80's at Neptunes where we had so many good times. You were always full of life willing to hang out till early morning hours just dancing ,drinking and being all together. These memories I will cherish forever.
Rest In Peace Deb!

“ Hey Debbie Hawkins (Bubbles) (The Hawk) Original member The Wang-wang's- I'm sorry we couldn't connect recently. I'm grateful that you are out of pain. You had been sickly for a long while. I hope you can look back at this life and see how you really were loved. - You had a smile that could light up a room - beautiful eyes that my Mom and Helen nicknamed you Bright eyes. You had a beautiful soul and a big huge heart. I constantly would think about you and our crazy dancing days. Play basketball, dance, and check-in with us. I love you. To her beautiful family, my heart is with you. IM so sorry for your loss. Sending you all the love your hearts can hold. Debbie Ann Schneider.

“ I knew Debbie as a young girl through my partners daughter Debbie Schneider. Your daughter would be at the house as many of the girls would be practicing for Harah a school celebration. A beautiful vibrant girl always smiling. Over the years Debbie would often stop in to say hello to us and make sure everyone was ok. Always smiling. I'm deeply sorry for your great loss. Prayer to you and your extended family.

*Sincerely
