“ I had just talked to Earl a few weeks ago while visiting Judy (his daughter) in Florida. He seemed like the good old energetic Sir that I got to know in 1985. Judy and I became friends in High School and I used to visit the French's sometimes after school. In America, we were taught to address adults by their last name but Sir didn't want to be called Mr. French, he liked Sir a lot better. He has never been a man of many words but has always showed his affection in action. A more gracious and unselfish man is hard to find. He never showed off his success and didn't raise his children in a materialistic facade. I've always kept in touch with Judy and through out the years have spoke to Sir on the phone. He was a wise and good man and I'm so sorry for your loss Judy. I send my condolences to everyone in the family.

“ Met him on thanksgiving day at Judy's place in Pinellas park, went outside and he smoked a cigar while I smoked a cigarette. We told some jokes and had some laughs . I was amazed about his trips to Ireland, it was many years afterwards I went to Wales and was supposed to go to Ireland, however , the ferry service was down. He was kind and funny with me, and for only meeting him a few times he left a lasting mark of friendship and love for his family and grandchildren
