“ What a great father, great husband and all around great guy. His stories have been passed to those around him. They have been living on in Brent and others and will continue to live on for many years and generations. He will be missed frequently and longly. Our strongest sympathies go out to his wife and entire family.

“ When I was young and my father his brothers and Frank got together the stories laughter and love could swell your heart. Frank has given so many memories to those who loved him that he will never be forgotten. I believe with all my heart that the boys are laughing right now!!! Much love to Aunt Laureen and family!

“ It was difficult to watch this master storyteller lose his voice. Although true to his 'life of the party' demeanor until his last days he was winking at the nurses and letting his stories tumble forth even after articulation became a challenge. Having lost my dad way too early, Uncle Frank stepped up and became both surrogate father & grandfather. I couldn't have asked for a better Godfather. There are so many favorite Uncle Frank stories and luckily Brent has his talent and will keep them alive for us. We love and miss him dearly.

“ The memories of Uncle Frank span my entire lifetime. He was a generous, kind, loving and classy Irishman. I was blessed to have loved him. Story telling is an art that came to him with ease. We loved his stories, no matter how many times, they were still as funny as the first time!! I will miss him terribly.
