“ It is heartbreaking to know that i will never see "Frankie Bananas" again. Frank was a much beloved member of our Glen Cove Social Program, a beautiful soul who loved to laugh and tell jokes and who enjoyed the company of his fellow members, even on his bad days. The vibrant stories of his life will forever be etched in my memory. His days as a mandolin player and musician, the wine business that he fell into, the fruit and vegetable trade, horses, casinos, houses and the run ins with Tough Tony. Frank was a beautiful life well-lived who sang his way into our hearts. Through the words of his favorite song he always let us know that he did everything His Way. I will truly miss him always.-Melanie
