

Frederick G. Burkhardt

January 12, 1922 - December 9, 2014

Frederick G. Burkhardt was born on January 12, 1922, in a farmhouse in Middle Village Queens, son of Frederick and Anna. Fred had two sisters, Florence and Viola and one brother Albert. He attended and graduated Newtown High School. Fred enlisted in the Navy and served in the South Pacific during World War II, stationed on the island of Guam as a machinist mate. Upon returning from the war he resumed his past position at the Bulova Watch Company in Queens, where he remained for over forty-five years, and retired as a chief Toolmaker. Uncle Freddy, was an avid cyclist, bowler and fisherman. He is survived by, and will be missed by all of his nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Frederick G. Burkhardt

November 16, 2022 at 07:31 PM