“ Our family has known the Caseys since we moved a few houses up the block on Summit Road in 1992. Gerry and Eleanor were so welcoming! I will forever be indebted to Gerry for putting me in touch with one of his sons, then serving in Korea, who arranged a visit in Korea for my father (a Korean war veteran) and my then teen age son to visit the exact spot on the DMZ where my father had served in 1951-1952. With a driver, arranged by Gerry's son, we were able to pass through South Korean Army checkpoints and drive right up to a South Korean Army base in a restricted area on the DMZ. This was an amazing experience for my father, my son and me. In recent years, I would make a point of walking home from the train via Summit Road rather than Orchard Farm Road and St. John Place just to pass by the Casey's house where Gerry would be watching TV (I am guessing in baseball season, he would be watching his beloved Red Sox). Seeing Gerry in front of the TV gave me a feeling that all was right in the world. Gerry, we will all miss you dearly. Thank you for being part of our Beacon Hill community and our lives! Rick Grove

“ From the time they first moved in around the corner, the Casey family were some of our favorite neighbors. We enjoyed walking to school with Jerry and Steve. Mr. Casey was so kind to our mom, bringing her the Eucharist once a month or so. Can't believe he left first. Many hugs to all the kids. You have so many wonderful memories to hold you up at this tough time.

“ I knew Gerry from daily mass. He was the most kind, considerate, generous and caring man that I've ever known. I'm already missing his smile but am comforted that he is with his beloved Eleanor. RIP Gerry and keep a watch over your family.

“ I was blessed to have such a wonderful man become part of my life. Always easy to talk to and very supportive. Uncle Gerry you lifted me up when I was down, praised me and made me feel I was worthy. You were a man who loved deeply and Aunt Ellie was your center of attention always. If only there were more men like you. This world would be perfect. Thank you for caring and loving me as if I was blood family. You will be forever in my heart. RIP
