“ Uncle Jerry was the best. Such a kind and gentle man. He loved his family more than anything. I remember Uncle Jerry taking me to the Statue of Liberty for the first time when I was a little girl. He will truly be missed by many.

“ Our family lost an incredible man. I am forever grateful to have had my Uncle Jerry in my life. The love he had for his wife, my Aunt Minnie, was unwavering. He raised two wonderful sons and loved his grandkids and other family members with everything he had. He brought joy to my mother and helped to raise her. Uncle Jerry, I love you so very much and miss you dearly. I hope you enjoyed Christmas Eve with Aunt Linda, Aunt Minnie and my mother up there. I hope you got to see our very dysfunctional yet perfect Zoom call on Christmas Eve. We will try our very best to hold on to traditions. Rest in peace, my perfect Uncle. xoxo to infinity and beyond.

“ So many memories of the man we call G-Pa. I was welcomed into the Passaro family immediately. When Jerry and I were still basically newlyweds, the four of us went to Las Vegas together. It was 104 degrees. Never complained. When Steven was one, we took him to the Mets spring training facility in Port St. Lucie. He was so excited to join us. It was the first time he was ever away from his beloved Mary. I dragged him with me on the drive to DisneyWorld because I thought that one year old Steven had to go to DisneyWorld. Jerry stayed behind for work. Steven cried all the way to Melbourne, Florida. We stopped for breakfast and had to turn around. Again, not one complaint. G-Pa was a fixture at PS 169. He knew all the teachers and they knew him. Many even referred to him affectionately as Grandpa Jerry. He attended every single Little League game and DAC basketball game that he could and formed a bond with Steven and Lauren's, friends, especially the Eichinger boys. My best memory of G-Pa, that was just a memory that we shared was when the two of us went to the 1986 World Series. The Mets were losing and the two of us were surrounded by Red Sox fans. Although G-Pa wanted to tell them to go back to Boston, he didn't. He got up and left. He missed Bill Buckner miss the play and the Mets win the game and go on to Game 7. I will miss all the special times we spent together, not just the holidays and our 12 Days of Christmas concert, but the ordinary times. And yes, I will even miss G-Pa's commentaries on Dancing With the Stars and The Bachelor. G-Pa had his pulse on popular culture.

“ Grandpa Gerry had 2 additional grandsons that most people were not aware of; Corey and Drew. Since I was a working mother, Grandpa Gerry knew they didn't like to go to the babysitter so he insisted on picking them up from school with his grandchildren Steven and Lauren. My boys were so thrilled when I told them that they were going home with Grandpa Gerry. He always made sure that he had their favorite snacks on hand. He was such a big part of my boys lives especially because my dad, their grandpa lived in Florida. I know how much his family meant to him and how much they adored him. He left a beautiful legacy behind. G-pa will always be in Our hearts and never forgotten. With love and condolences to the Passaro family, Rhonda Eichinger
