

Irene Harriet Gaudio

December 9, 1923 - August 17, 2018

Irene Harriet Gaudio December 9, 1923 - August 17, 2018 of Glen Cove, NY. Raised a poor farm girl in South Dakota, she rode horses and herd cattle. She was very proud of her roots and Norwegian heritage. Irene means "Goddess of Peace" and so she was. Her spirit, faith that God has a plan and love of family and all people will live in all of us forever. She is an inspiration to her family and anyone she ever met. A true legend. Our Guardian Angel. We will love you forever. Visitation will be Monday 7-9PM at the Roslyn Heights Funeral Home. Entombment will take place out of state at the All Saints Cemetery Des Plaines, Illinois.

“ My dear Aunt Irene was such a special person. I remember when I was a teenager and she would come home to South Dakota for a visit. She treated me so special. We would put on our sun bathing attire, spread a blanket in the yard and she told me many things about life in Chicago. We talked about everything and when we returned to the house I felt as grown and mature as she was. I loved her so much, Rest in peace special person.

“ *To our beautiful Irene,
Thinking of you and wishing you moments of peace and comfort as you remember your sweet mom. She was the best! We know she is riding her horse in the Dakota mountains.
All my love,
Stella (The Regency)*
