

Jane C. Valentine

October 4, 2017

Jane C. Valentine passed away peacefully on October 4, 2017, at Glens Falls Hospital. She was a shining light in the lives of all who knew her. For most of her life Jane lived in the same Elm Street home in Roslyn where she raised her family, before moving in with her son later in life.

The first of three children, she was born on July 16th, 1927, to Coleman and Madeline Conklin. Jane grew into a wisecracking, strong woman and matriarch. She was actively involved in charity throughout her life, loved sitting on her front porch with her neighbors, and being with friends and family.

A crimson headed firecracker, Jane went into nursing and was a member of the Albertsons VFW Auxiliary for over fifty years. She was also a member of the Rebekah's and the Eastern Star. She married Edwin A. Valentine Jr. in 1948 and thereafter was an exceptional mother to Edwin A. Valentine III and Virginia Horton.

Jane Valentine is survived by her son Edwin and his wife Jeanne, and grandchildren Kerri Checa, Kelly Bardin, Katie Bardin, Whitney Horton, Rebecca Valentine, Devin Horton, Meredith Horton, Garrett Horton, as well as many great grandchildren and many more. We will miss her stubbornness, sass, and her hilariously inappropriate jokes.
