“ How do we say goodbye to a sister in law who I've known for more than 50 years? We've been together through ups and downs, but always together. She was always smiling, helpful and a pleasure to be with.

She stated once that she learned from me as a young wife and Mom. I think the opposite is true and I learned more from her. I learned how to have more fun with family friends, and yes those pets. Did you know that she and Arnie once flew to FL for a week to take care of our sweet Lexi as we had to be away? Lexi was in great hands. And I remember the time they drove our soon to be son-in-law Jeff back to a NY airport so he wouldn't have to take a bus. There are numerous occasions like this that I could write a book.

We share in all your sorrow and with the hope of one day seeing her again. Our tears are not enough.

Hugs, Dee and Joe Purka
