

John Edward Travalena

January 26, 2026

John Travalena passed away on January 26th, 2026, after a reoccurrence of cancer. John, also known as "Pops", is survived by his daughter Breianne, his grandchildren Riley and Frankie and his family who loved him dearly. John had a kind soul and the gift of infectious humor and laughter. John was a doorman in NYC and greeted each tenant and passerby with a smile. John never met a dog he didn't adore and gave a home to many four-legged friends during his lifetime. John is now at peace, joined with his parents Fred and Cathrine, brother Fred, sister Cathrine, and wife Sandy. Pops will be missed greatly.
