“ When I met Jonathan and saw just how happy he and Jamie were together as a couple and as parents I was thrilled. Family was everything to him; more so when he faced all the challenges he did the last five years. He was always hopeful, upbeat, and courageous. For me, all the times we gathered to celebrate birthday parties for Parker, Tristan, Beckham, and holidays, etc. were my favorites. I loved how Jamie was able to make a birthday party this past April for Beckham and a surprise birthday party for Jon at the same time. It was such a wonderful day.. Jon will forever be in our hearts. Love, Aunt Carol

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I have been working with Jonathan for several years now. He was always the kindest & friendliest person. It was a pleasure to have known him & even though we had a business relationship, I always considered him a friend. Our thoughts & prayers go out to his family. He will be truly missed. - Vincenza La Tempa & The Skill-man Staff.
