

Joseph M. Mooney

September 30, 2022

Joseph M. Mooney of Port Washington passed on Sept. 30, 2022 in his 79th year. He attended The Julliard School and Columbia University where he graduated with a Master of Arts. Joseph was a veteran of the US Air Force where he played in the Strategic Air Command Band. He also taught Music in the Port Washington Public Schools. Joseph is survived by his brother Christopher of South Hadley, MA.. and predeceased by his sister Kim Ann Marinus of Myrtle Beach, SC.

Tribute Wall

AO

“ I reconnected with Mr Mooney over 40 years after moving away from Port. I always had such fond memories of my musical experiences with him, he was so supportive and his love and enthusiasm for music was infectious. I am so sorry to learn of his passing. What a wonderful man. Thank you, Mr Mooney, for inspiring me to become a professional musician.
Anik Oulianine

anik oulianine - January 09, 2024 at 01:19 PM

“ Joseph M. Mooney

November 16, 2022 at 07:31 PM

CK

“ Mr. Mooney was a highlight of my time in Port Washington schools. How lucky we were to have him as a teacher, conductor, friend and supporter. I have so many lovely memories of what an amazing and talented person he was. My deepest condolences to his family and friends.

Charity Kapolka - November 16, 2022 at 09:06 AM

JE

“ I played orchestra under his direction for the entire time I was in Port Washington schools. Joe Mooney was incredibly supportive and kind. He went to great efforts to foster talent in the players, and I appreciate so much his efforts over decades for the kids in Port Washington. I am so sorry he's gone. My heart goes out to his family in this time of loss.

John Eastwood - October 21, 2022 at 07:53 PM