missing you more today and everyday!! Just doesn't get easier does you.....now I know the pain you felt with Gram. Funny how history repeats itself to a tee!!! I wish you were so here with us!!! Thankfully, we had those long talks in the hospital and said the words and plans that needed to be spoken about. I will love you with all my heart forever a day ma!! You are by far the best friend anyone could ask for, and the best ma, grandma and mom n law. it is funny how no one truly understands the depth of our closeness. i love you so very much! I hope you are at peace and not in any more pain. I really hope you are happy with Gram. I know how much you missed her. I think we were the only one who really knew how badly....and now we know your pain! I am just doing what you told me to do....although no one believes it is what you requested. I LOVE YOU!xoxoxoxoxo

“ I can't believe it's been over a week it doesn't seem possible still walking pat your room chokes me up. Even this past weekend in Lake Geroge I still couldn't stop thinking about you. Grandma I love you so much I just want to physically see you again so I can actually talk to you in person not on this or sending you text messages. When I send you a text you have no idea how badly I want to respond to me but you can't. I just want you back grandma. Please come back. I love you so much you have no idea. Can't wait to see you again!! Enjoy the coffe and scrabble.

“ It's been a little over a week since you left us physically, and I haven't stopped thinking about you for one second. With school approaching, I can't help but remember having lunch with you on my long breaks. Everytime I get an iced coffee, you pop into my mind. It's sad to know you're gone physically, but to know that you're not suffering anymore is such a relief to me, I can't help but be happy for you. Please keep watching over me, and know that I love you very much.

You saw how loved you when you entered the hospital you had everyone there surrounding you. I hope you watch over me and the family while you are not in pain, having coffee and watching Jeopardy or The Chew. Gram I love you:* see you someday*

“ Kath, you treated me like another daughter for so many years so it's pretty hard to say goodbye to you. You always took me and Ke to the mall (our fav place as teenagers), would pick out a bunch of things for yourself and then turn around and put them all back at the last second--but buy your daughter what she wanted. So selfless. And for all the nights we kept you up with our sleepovers, you are a saint! I will miss your wit, your humor and your kindness. xoxoxoxox

“ Gram,
You treated me like I was a part of the family since day one, and I am fortunate enough to say that I think of you as a third grandmother. I always tell Anthony that, and how much it means to me. You were the most loving, kind, and generous person, and I know you are greatly loved and missed by everyone.
Love, Katherine

“ For as long as I can remember, having coffee and breakfast with Aunt Kathy, last year I met her for lunch every Monday and Wednesday, and going to Aunt Leslie's. When we moved to North Carolina, I could always speak to her and confide in her. She was always putting other people's needs before her own, and was a truly loving person. I love you Aunt Kathy.
