

Lillian M. Bagnato

January 11, 2026

Mrs. Lillian "Pat" Bagnato of Port Washington passed away peacefully on January 11, 2026. She was 100 years old. She was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison, three sisters, Elizabeth Glass, Mary Morris and Gertrude Murphy, her husband Anthony R. Bagnato, daughter Dina Marie, sons Kevin A. Bagnato & John J. Bagnato. She is survived by her son Richard K. Bagnato & daughters Luran M. Parrotta (Michael), Amy M. Kraker (Karl), step grandson Michael Kraker, grandsons John A. Bagnato (Samantha), Michael N. Parrotta III (Brianna), Nicholas A. Parrotta, and great grandson Michael N. Parrotta IV.

Also survived by nieces and nephews: Patricia Morris, John Morris (Patricia), Dennis Murphy (Jane), Mariann D'Alusio (John), James Marshall Jr., Loretta Beorlegui, many grand and great grand nieces and nephews, and several Morrison, Kitzinger and Zimmerman cousins. She was a Port Washington, NY resident for over 66 years spending many summers on Long Island Beaches (Montauk NY). Born June 7, 1925 in Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania. She was a descendant of John Weakland who emigrated from England in 1634.

Continued education in New Jersey, Manhattan & on Long Island. She worked as a dedicated Nurse/ Administrator in Pediatrics/Geriatrics over a lifetime career.

She was a nature lover and found joy in every tree, every bird, and every sunset. She was a supporter of the Arts & Education in all forms. She introduced & taught her children and grands to appreciate our museums, parks, Broadway on & off, literature, poetry and education through those means and more. She will be greatly missed.

Memorial Mass will take place at Our Lady of Fatima on Friday March 27, 2026, at 10AM. Inurnment to follow at LI National Cemetery.

Cemetery Details

Long Island National Cemetery

2040 Wellwood Avenue
11735
Farmingdale, NY

Previous Events

Memorial Mass

MAR 27. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Our Lady of Fatima
6 Cottonwood Road
Port Washington, NY 11050