

Madhu Vazirani

March 12, 2026

Madhu Vazirani passed away peacefully on March 12, 2026, at the age of 67. She was a devoted believer in Shirdi Sai Baba and a deeply cherished daughter, wife, mother, and grandmother.

Madhu is lovingly remembered by her husband, Vinod; her daughter, Natasha, and son-in-law, Raman; her son, Shailen, and daughter-in-law, Juilly; and her three beloved grandchildren, Penelope, Kushal, and Ethan, along with her extended family and dear friends.

Born in India, Madhu later came to the United States after marrying Vinod, where together they built a life centered on family, love, and opportunity. She dedicated more than 30 years of her life to her professional work, always striving with determination and purpose.

Madhu believed deeply in kindness, compassion, and bringing happiness to others. Her generosity of spirit and thoughtful nature touched everyone who knew her. She took great joy in caring for those around her and celebrating life's many blessings.

Her greatest pride was her family. Becoming a grandmother brought her immeasurable joy, and she loved her grandchildren endlessly.

Madhu's passions included traveling, cooking, reading, and spending meaningful time with family and friends. She embraced life's many adventures with faith, warmth, and a joyful spirit.

Madhu will be remembered for her loving heart, her unwavering faith, and the joy and laughter she shared with those around her. Her memory will live on in the hearts of her family and friends forever.
