“ *Mimi was the beloved little sister of my dad, if not his most favorite. The joy she brought to the family with her sheer presence was enormous. Though you are gone too soon, I am sure my dad must be rejoicing to reunite with you in heaven. You will be loved always and dearly missed.
May your love and blessing be bestowed upon Mamoni forever and for always. Sending you lots of love to cope with this irreversible grief.

“ *Mimi was the beloved little sister of my dad, if not his most favorite. I think sitting in heaven he could not wait to meet her. She will be dearly missed by all of us. Wherever you are, may you smile and be at peace and know that you will be remembered and loved by all.
My thoughts and love are with Mamoni now. Please take one day at a time and may you come out strong from this irreversible grief.
With Love,
Tia*

“ My Mimi was always such an inspiration to me. When she visited Scotland from the USA, she was so beautiful and hip and exciting to be with. My dad loved his little sister dearly, and made sure we would get time together with our auntie, even though we lived thousands of miles apart. Auntie was a huge comfort to me when my father passed too - it didn't matter how much time or distance there was, she was there for me. I have eternal gratitude for her daughter Mamoni, who brought an even bigger bond between us. Mimi was a shining and beautiful soul, and she will be missed terribly.

“ I had the privilege's of working with Mai twice. The first time was in the mid 90s at the Woodhaven Library. The second time was around 2015 at the Howard Beach Library. I will remember her as a kind and caring colleague.

“ I believe myself to be the last family member that Maitreyee spent time with before she died. I took her for a routine doctor's visit, we ate brunch at her favorite Cafe and I snapped a photo of her as she took off suddenly to say hi to a little boy. It was a beautiful day as she was a beautiful soul. Will miss you dearly Mother-in-law. Always in our hearts,

love Jermin
