

Mark M. Wee

September 26, 1959 - March 5, 2016

Mark Manyong Wee Sr. passed away on Saturday, March 5th 2016. Today, we remember Mark as the leader, family man, food connoisseur, and unwavering optimist that inspired those around him and gathered us here in his remembrance. One of his last requests was to fill his memorial with joy and music so we ask that you leave a memory or thought that you would like to send to him and his loved ones. We honor his memory by cherishing our loved ones and living our lives with purpose.

Visitation Wednesday 2-4 & 7-9:00pm at the Roslyn Heights Funeral Home. Prayer service Wednesday evening 8PM. Thursday 10AM at funeral home followed by entombment at Pinelawn Memorial Park.

“ I can't still realize that he is not with us anymore. I remember him as a caring and warm-hearted person who tried to approach first and be ready to offer help to those around him. He enjoyed getting together, talking with people over good meals. He appreciates tastes of food, sweet melody of music, dynamics of sports, and above all rapport between him and those around him.

It seems like he will still welcome my family with open heart and bright smile when we visit his home as he has been over the last years.

May I wish he sheds his responsibility and rest in peace and comfort.

“ Mark sahm-chon, it breaks my heart that you left so early. My mom always told me what an amazing family man you were...always taking care of everyone. She always told me that you were more of a brother than a cousin to her. I know how much she cared about you, and she misses you beyond words. We all miss you.

The Oh family in Chicago would like to express its warmest condolences to Judy, Mark Jr., Brian, and Drew. Please reach out if you ever need anything.

*Love,
Jennifer Oh*

“ Thank god for Judy bringing Mark to our house. If not, it may have been a decade or more. My memory is of Mark, giving us encouragement...sending his positivity to us. As if he knew, he had the strength for everyone. You live on with us...through your incredible boys, and your amazing wife. We love you and miss you already. Love Cynthia Chung

“ I will always remember Mark being the ultimate shining example of responsibility. When I was young, I remember being very excited to goto Aunt's house in Flushing where Jay took me to a youth meeting to meet his friends. After wards, we decided to drink a little. When we got back to the apartment, Mark freaked out on Jay saying he was very bad for exposing me to such things at a young age.

I always admired Mark for not only talking the talk, but walking the walk.

I'm deeply sorry for his early departure, his life was dedicated to the well being of those around him, and later in life, his dedication to the future of his children.

His spirit shall return to those lives he touched around him in his afterlife.
