“ My heartfelt condolences go out to Jim and his family. There are no words of comfort at a time like this, I am shocked and saddened by the news of Mary's passing.

Mary always had a smile on her face.

Jim, my wish would be that over time your beautiful memories will help ease the pain of this terrible loss.

You will be in my prayers.

“ She always saved my stool for me at the bar and made me feel like one of the crowd when I was just a newcomer. She always got me ready to take my place on the stage when my knees were knocking together and told me how well I had done when I was sure people could hear the flutter in my voice. For the past few days, when I was told she was failing, I kept thinking that she was just going to another better place and that she would keep an empty stool for me. Beautiful people are defined by a beautiful soul. Mary, you were clearly a beautiful soul and we know that never dies. One by one, all of us will be walking through that door, looking to join you and know for sure when I get there, the next Bud is on me. Those of us who loved you will deal with our broken hearts until we meet with you again. Candy & I will keep you in our hearts forever.
