

Michael Chang

May 20, 2021

Michael Chang, beloved son, father, brother and nephew, died suddenly after collapsing at his home May 20th in Glen Cove, N.Y. He was 42.

Michael worked in IT technical support at Prima, LLC. Born Aug. 25, 1978, he grew up in Adelphi, Md.

Soft spoken, kind and standing 6 feet 5 inches, his ready smile and gentle soul towered over all who knew him. He enjoyed Broadway plays, dining out, the N.Y. Jets, and, most of all, spending time with his 12-year old daughter.

Michael is survived by his daughter, Claire; mother Nancie Chang of Adelphi, Md.; father Charles Chang and stepmother Michelle Wang of Rockville, Md., older brother David Chang and his wife Sofia of Austin, Texas. A memorial service is being organized by his family.

“ Michael was an incredible guy...always willing and happy to help...never too busy to help...even in the most stressful of times. His skills were second to none. Most importantly, his gentle, kind spirit is profoundly missed. My sincerest condolences to Michael's family and closest friends. May his memory be eternal.

“ Dearest Michael, When you were born you made your parents so happy and gave David the brother he needed to play with and who you could learn from. I loved coming to your and David's birthday parties and watch you grow into the beautiful man you became, a perfect father for your lovely daughter who so resembles you. You brought us all so much joy and your time with us was much too short. Love always from Hedy Glenn.

“ I was hired on the same day as Mike at Primma.
We worked together for years and it was evident from the start that Mike would excel and become the top tech of our group.
He was always hard working and totally devoted to his daughter.
I will miss his wonderful easy going personality!
I cannot remember a single time in all the years we worked together that he ever said a bad word about anyone or ever even got mad or upset over anything!
He was an exceptional person and we will all surely miss him.

My condolences to the Chang family.

“ Michael, when you were born, we called it Christmas in August. The joy you brought your parents and brother David, and all of us, lasted throughout your life. Your gentle spirit and smiling expression created a cozy warmth at every family gathering. You could fix anything and were always generous with your help. I remember being afraid to operate my backyard barbecue and I asked you to operate it. Instead, you showed me how it worked. You visited us wherever we lived....oh how close we were! We were so excited that you were going to spend your precious vacation time in March 2020 to come to see us in Florida but COVID cancelled your travel. We saw your loving pride in Claire through your Facebook postings. I would give anything to bring you back. But we must go on. Please know that your family members are comforting one another, and that we are touched by the kind words of your friends from work. My only comfort is in knowing that I will see you again in heaven. Love Forever,
Aunt Alex

“ Michael was a terrific human being. He operated from a place of doing his very best - all of the time. Mike was selfless and extended himself above and beyond to complete every project perfectly. He was unhurried, kind, gentle, disciplined, caring and made your life better for knowing him.
My deepest condolences to the Chang family on the loss of one great man,
With my sympathy,
Gerri
