“ Lee and Rock were close friends with my parents.
I have so many memories but the ones that stick out are those great ceramic classes they held at their home to bring the neighbors together... What fun
Or those late night card games at my parents house.
Those great Christmas decorations on their front lawn.
Such great childhood memories that I hold a special place in my heart 💙.
My deepest sympathy to her family.
Rest in peace Lee

*My husband was godson to your grandma and grandpa. They were 2 special people and so special to me. We were blessed to have them in our lives. They treated us with so much Love and we loved them so much. I wish we would have known. We would have paid our respects. Please get in touch with us. Would love to tell you so many stories. With our Love and prayers. Toni and Michael Delligatti

“My condolences to Dominic and her family. Lee and Rock were neighbors and close friends to my parents, Angelo and Betty. I remember they're late night card games in the screened porch. They had such a good time. And of course taking the ceramics classes in their basement was also a lot of fun. I also remember fondly their chihuahuas, Lady and Missy. RIP Lee. ~ Angela Ricciardi

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Lee Macchio. I have many, many fond memories of her and Rock growing up. My parents were great friends of theirs. Lee was always a quiet yet funny woman. I remember playing with their grandchildren when they were visiting. I used to play at their house visiting with her beloved dogs Missy and Lady. It was always comforting knowing we had such great neighbors and friends nearby. Rest in peace, Lee....
