“ I worked with Nicole at RBC Independence Square, Port of Spain. She was a live wire, always positive, loving and caring. Dedicated to whatever she was involved in.

So sorry to learn of her passing. Gone too soon, but God knows best and is in control.

Rest In Peace dearest Nicole as you light up the heavens with your infectious smile.

Love always, Juliette

“ Statler and Waldorf is how we referred to ourselves, the 2 muppets in the balcony from the muppet show haha. Sis I will miss you so much. I will miss us laughing and joking and talking about sitting in the nursing home together, you were a great friend, my prom date, my riding partner, as the years went by we lost each other couple times, but we always will just connect like no time passed, You would find my mom to find out where I am, I hope she was there to greet you, You know she and my grandfather loved some Wendy, one of the few people they would allow to spend time at our house, and your mom would approve. I'm so glad I got the opportunity to spend time with you these last days, I love you today, tomorrow and forever. Sleep in peace sis and save me my seat in the balcony, so we can let the laughter continue. I'm glad you were apart of my life. I love you, I will look out for your baby boy once given the opportunity. sisterfriends forever.
