“ Owen and Bernadette are two of the most gracious, compassionate and loving people I have ever met. Owen and Bernadette took my family in immediately after hurricane Sandy. They showed us love, support, compassion and offered their home during this time. I will never, ever forget Owen's unconditional support and love. I feel extremely blessed to have had Owen in my life and the friendship of Bernadette. Helen Sheehan

“ Bernadette, I send you love and know you took wonderful care of Owen. He was a good man who helped everyone he could and was blessed when you married him and he became part of the Casey family. Owen saw a problem and he would solve it. His energy, concern for everyone he could help and his love for country was outstanding. Jo-Ann Tomaiuolo Scebold
