

Patricia C. Harding

December 6, 1944 - December 26, 2014

Patricia C. Harding, born December 6th 1944 in New York City the daughter of Thomas and Winifred Cunningham. She was raised in Parkchester, and attended St. Raymond's Elementary and Villa Maria Academy. She earned her nursing degree at Kings County Nursing School. Pat met her husband, T. Peter Harding during a 4th of July weekend in the Hamptons. They were married for 47 years. Together they raised 5 children: Maura, Jennifer, Theodore, Timothy and Meaghan. Pat loved her children and devoted her life to them. Pat worked as an Emergency Room nurse for 42 years. In between working and raising a family, Pat was a steadfast volunteer and active parishioner at St. Mary's Roslyn. Coaching numerous teams, running the CYO, the 300 Club, the Carnival, and singing in the choir were just some of her many activities. Pat was at her best when she was helping others. She was a good friend, had a kind heart and always put others first. She will be sorely missed by her family and friends. Pat is survived by her husband T. Peter, her children Maura (Harry), Jennifer (Matthew), Theodore (Jenny), Timothy (Jeanine), and Meaghan (Ryan). Her 14 grandchildren Peter, Michaela, Emma, Harry III, Maeve, Richard, Maureen, Cal, Alyson, Wilson, Thomas, William, Rowan and Braden. Her siblings Tom, Kate, Virginia, Kevin and predeceased by Maureen (2001). In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The Yawkey House of Possibilities, 350 Washington St., North Easton, Massachusetts, 02357.
