“ I am so saddened to read Bobby passed away. I reside in Florida and My (deceased) husband Mario was Bobby's Best man when he and Nancy married at Disney. We kept in touch via phone once a month, since my husband passed, and we spoke hours sharing our memories of Nancy. I hadn't heard from him and kept dialing his phone. Rang and rang, both his home and cell phone. So today the 20th of July I put his name into search engine and read this. Totally shocked and my heart felt the loss. I do hope his brother knows how very special Bobby was to my late husband and me. He was his own man and did not hold back anything he felt was wrong and not to his liking. I am sure he is happy to be back with his Nancy as he never could go on with his life after losing her. He is in Heaven now. No doubt in my mind.

“ Although we haven't seen Bobby in over 30 years, the memory of him as a very sweet person and his sense of humor has remained with us. We were deeply saddened by his passing. Leon & Mary Jane

“ Bobby was unique, one of a kind. Alone for most of his life but when he met Nancy it was a love affair second to none. They complimented each other and worked as a team until she passed. Bobby was never the same again. If you were his friend there was nothing that he would not do for you. I will miss the phone calls with a familiar voice saying "How ya doing." Rest in Peace Bobby - I will miss you.

“ Bobby was the best neighbor growing up. I remember hanging out there after school "touring" his home & hearing all the stories behind his Disney collection. Our family was lucky enough to go to Disney World with him one year and it was like being alongside royalty! Everyone knew Mr. Carson by name... The ULTIMATE Disney VIP!
