Mrs. Satya Joshi

March 2nd, 1944 - January 13, 2024,

It is with great sorrow, the Joshi family is announcing the sudden demise of a great wife, mother and grand mother Mrs. Satya Joshi. She has always been the most loved person in her family, whether it was before or after her marriage with Mr. Dharm Pal Joshi. She was youngest of her siblings, proud mother of five exceptionally loving and caring kids and tremendous grand ma of eight grand kids, besides her immediate family, she had many well wishers who were just as close as her family members. She died on January 13, 2024 in Hicksville, NY at the age of 79 and surrounded by her husband, kids and her grand kids at her residence. She went to heavenly abode peacefully while sleeping. She always had a warm, welcoming and nurturing feeling towards everyone she knew. She has left with a huge void to Joshi family, which no time can fill.

There will be a visitation / funeral service on Tuesday January 16th from 11:00AM - 1:00PM at Roslyn Heights Funeral Home. Cremation to follow at Long Island Cremation Co. Inc.

We are praying that she will have a beautiful journey ahead.

“ I have always seen Satya BuaJee smiling and caring. One thing I can't forget the love she showed for my Dad. In 1990ies, when we used to get Dad's videos from America, she was the first one to come to Sheikhpur home and see his recording and those tears in her eyes, showed how much she loved him. We had so many memories of Jalandhar house, train travel to Delhi and the loved she showed us every time we met. May her soul rest in peace! We will forever cherish your memories!
Om Shanti Om!

“ I have always seen mausiji full of life, love and laughter, but so sensitive to relationships that I have seen her shedding tears of happiness on meeting the loved ones after a long time. Being the youngest among her siblings, I could always see the child in her, but at the same time she was very brave, brave enough to come and get me from my college hostel during the curfew of 1994. I was stuck in hostel in Jalandhar when she came and took me and my friend to home. I can still remember how relieved we were after seeing her. The time that I spent with the family was precious as the entire family is a reflection of her love and caring nature. My heartfelt condolences to the entire family and pray to God that He gives the family the strength to bear this loss and
