“ 26 July 2019: My profound condolences to Louise, Anthony, Elizabeth and to the rest of Shake's immediate family upon her passing on 20 July 2019. We both knew each other for 23 years when I first moved to the apartment upstairs which she was renting. Yes, she was my landlady for all those years, but she was much more than that. Shake had a remarkable intellect, fluent in more languages than I have fingers on my right hand, a wonderful conversationalist, a seasoned and traveled pilgrim to places I could only imagine visiting. She would describe them so vividly to me and it was as if I myself had just taken a trip to Madrid, Rome, London or Romania. In her later years before 2017, we both enjoyed watching together on Saturday nights her favorite British comedy series called Keeping Up Appearances. She loved that show and its main character, Hyacinth Bucket, or as Hyacinth would pronounce it as in French...Bouquet. Her laugh was a hardy one and contagious whenever she watched it. Above all of the already cited, the most important quality of Shake was that she had a gentle soul, kind and motherly. What more could anyone ask for be they family or friend? The last time I saw her was in 2017. I will never forget her, she was like a mother to me after I lost my own in 2006. I thank God that our paths crossed in this life because she was one of a kind, strong and resilient. She worked hard for all she received. She passed that trait on to her children and grandchildren I firmly believe. What a model to emulate. I will miss your smile and laughter Shake, as well all shall. May choirs of angels and heavenly bells greeted as you entered Heaven and in the arms of Jesus Himself. Rest in eternal and His perpetual Light. You are missed, but your loved ones and all those who called you friend in this life shall all one day be reunited with you again. Until that wonderful day happens, be at peace Shake. With much love and affection, Rafael.
