“ I met Sharon when we worked for Linbeck Construction in Houston, TX. We quickly became friends and family. Her delightful smile, infectious laugh, warm heart and flare for a quick quip enriched my life. I remember her Mischievous fun spirit; love of ruby red glass and the way she always made me feel special even when we were apart. She sent Charlie and I the most unique Christmas Cards that folded out & told a sentimental story in their design. We place them on our tree every year. Missing her and remembering her love for her family:) Beverly Barnard Gooch

“ I knew that Sharon was a special person from the first day she started working at City National. She quickly became our "Chief Morale Officer" and had one of the best laughs ever. Heaven has a new angel.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Sharon for 6 years, and she will be deeply missed. Her laughter, kindness, strength, and no nonsense spirit will be remembered for a long time. Will raise a cup of tea in her honor, and may her soul rest in eternal peace, and may her loved ones find solace. Mila Kogan
