“ Steven was THE guy who would literally give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. And always with that smile.

“ I'll keep Steven in my heart,
So many precious souvenirs with him
Love to Kendy, her so cute children,
Love to all his so sweet family and friends
I think about all of you

“ You had this personality so rare in the world, the one who knows how to laugh to lighten the pain, and to be there when it is necessary to heal it. We all have in mind your laughing eyes always ready to make a good joke, your smile so bright radiating all the rooms, your attentive ear, always ready to listen with attention and compassion, and your heart so generous, always ready to give without counting. Life has offered us the treasure of your presence, we keep it preciously and forever engraved in our hearts. Thank you for everything you have offered us of yourself. Thank you for everything Steven. We will love you for ever <3 Anaïs, Thomas, Andy & Zack

“ Steven was compassionate, funny, and always up for an adventure. He loved his family fiercely. While I am happy he is now at peace, the world lost a wonderful man.

“ Steve was a wonderful and enthusiastic person. A man who was able to lift people's spirits and helped others when in need. He came to my office as a customer but also helped me fix my office equipment. He and his wife became my trusted friend. I will miss you Steve. Rest in peace.

“ I met Steven when we were kids because my sister Sherylle was friends with his sister Harriet. They would take us along with them on adventures if they had to watch us. We also went to day camp through the Y together. He was funny, smart, and charming. My deepest condolences to his family and friends. His memory will always be a blessing.
