“ I offer my deepest sympathy in the death of our loved one, Sue Ann. She was a humble, kind, generous, and gentle soul. A dear friend dating back to Seminary days at Philadelphia as we shared together our struggles and joys during that educational process. Whether sharing in a sweet dessert, the wonders of Walt Disney World, a quiet moment or words of encouragement, Sue was a true friend and faithful servant of word & sacrament sharing gospel joy in all she said and did. Friend, colleague, sister in faith - I pray God grant you peace and the Holy Spirit comfort your family and friends in our grief at this sudden loss. Rest eternal grant her, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon her. Well done thou good and faithful servant of Christ, enter into the joy of your master. We will miss you until we see each other again. Perry
