“ Miss Forgione was my elementary school Librarian. She allowed me, along with another girl to stay after school and help out in the library. We put away some books, refiled some reference cards, but mostly she listened to our 6th grade problems and endured us acting out skits from the popular television show "Laugh In" We gave that poor woman an Excedrin headache everyday. But, she encouraged my love of books and storytelling and let me read until she locked up to go home. Virginia Forgione was a superhero. No cape required. She got the job done in a pencil skirt and a pair of sensible shoes.

“ Was thinking of Virginia today, my Mother's birthday and just saw she passed. My mother was a friend of hers from college. My heart goes out to her family and friends.

“ Ginny was my special friend. I taught with her for many years and we were in continual contact. I spoke with her a week ago and we made plans for a visit as soon as this pandemic was over. I have lost a treasured friend. Doug Moreland
