“ Bill was one of my former husband Greg Wolas' and my first and best friends when we moved to Glen Cove NY back in the 90's. I remember him so fondly for his kindness, warmth and sense of humor. Bill never met a stranger and his laugh was contagious. He remained a dear friend of Greg's over the years and I would also see him once in awhile when business brought me back up to NY. I was so sorry to learn of his passing last week. I believe he's with God now, his suffering is over, and he knows how much he is loved. I hope and pray for all who mourn Bill to find comfort and peace in your memories and faith. Thank you for sharing a moment of silent sharing with me in honor of Bill.
