

You Sheih

July 12, 2012

Born and raised in Shanghai, China as a son of a banker, YS was educated in Japan and then immigrated to the US. After moving to NY, he met his wife Theresa and were married in Queens, NY. Half of his career was as a metallurgist engineer for a heat treating company that he eventually bought and ran the business. His entrepreneur nature leads him to Hong Kong in the 1980's, where he was part of a family business. He returned to the US after a couple of years and changed his career to become an independent retailer in the wine and liquor business with a small store in Little Neck, NY.

YS was always ready for a debate. His provocative views will be duly missed. Although leaving China over 50 years ago, his heart remains there with the Chinese people. It was his desire to contribute back to the Chinese society and therefore we have created a fund to support an orphanage in China.

A Memorial Service will be conducted at the Roslyn Heights Funeral Home on Saturday, July 21, 2012 at 2pm. In lieu of flowers, a fund is being created for a Chinese Orphanage. Donations can be sent to Nora Carroll 15525 Fox Club Way, Midlothian, VA. 23112.
