“ I used to work with Yvonne at the Protestant Guild for the Blind in Watertown back around 1978. We were friends and would hang out together. I think she lived in Arlington at the time. I visited her there a few times. I was thinking back to those days and typed her name into google and that is how I found out that she passed away. Very sad. She was such a nice person. Ed Mello

“ Deeply saddened about Yvonne's untimely passing away. We were good friends in our 20s and we stayed connected through the years. Yvonne was kind, generous, and conscientious. A special, good-hearted person. Was looking forward to a get-together with her. Condolences to Yvonne's family and all whose hearts have been touched by their connections to Yvonne.

“ I was so sadden to read of Yvonne’s passing in Port Washington News last week. We were good friends in high school and, after almost 50 years, had reconnected for a lovely walk by Hempstead Harbor before Covid. I will think back on fun times in our “teens” and hold on to those warm memories always. Rest in peace sweet friend.

“ I knew Yvonne for quite a few years. She lived in my neighborhood and would often give me rides when I needed one. In all the time I knew her she was always friendly, helpful, and upbeat. We talked about a lot of things. What she liked to talk about most of all were her cats, Sammy and Marcel. I like cats too so that was a bond between us and I always looked forward to hearing the latest about Sammy and Marcel. Yvonne was so pleasant and positive that it is hard to believe that she is really gone. I miss her and so, I am sure, do her cats and the many friends she and I had in common.
